

A Conversation with john a. powell & Michael Omi

*Monday, November 4, 2013
4:30-6:30PM
470 Stephens Hall*

The Haas Institute for a Fair and Inclusive Society welcomes you into a conversation with john a. powell, Executive Director & Professor of Law, African American and Ethnic Studies; and Michael Omi, Associate Director & Professor of Ethnic Studies in a conversation on race. Profs. powell and Omi will engage in a lively and thoughtful dialogue about the role of race in American society, whether we are heading into a post-racial moment, and the growing levels of racial anxiety and their expressions. Join Profs. powell and Omi for a candid conversation on race, and have an opportunity to ask questions or raise issues related to race.

*Light refreshments will be served.
For wheelchair accessibility, please contact vhash@berkeley.edu for directions to the ramp and elevator that access the fourth floor.*

Inquiries should be addressed to haasinstitute@gmail.com.
For information on future events, check out our website and event calendar.